While in Washington for the purpose of attending the Annual meeting of Woman's Foreign Mission Society, a few weeks ago, I visited the Corcoran Art Gallery. In looking around I was very much impressed with a picture I saw, "In the hands of the Enemy" I think it was, a wounded soldier belonging, I think, to the Confederate Army was price, and I think I shall send for a copy - not knowing whom to address I send this to the Gallery - would like to have a prompt reply, as I would like to have the photograph this week - provided it, or an engraving of the same can be gotten.

Rules for the Admission of Works of Art

TO THE

Corcoran Gallery of Art

Adopted by the Board of Trustees, March 8, 1878.

1. Pictures offered for exhibition, properly framed and in suitable condition, shall be placed in the Trustees' room for inspection by the Committee on Works of Art, and, if approved, shall be assigned a place by the Curator, who shall have them hung under the direction of the same committee.

2. No Works of Art admitted to the Gallery shall be removed in less than thirty (30) days after being deposited, or remain longer than four (4) months, except by the consent of the Committee on Works of Art.

3. At the expiration of the time stipulated for the exhibition of any Work of Art, the owner, or his representative, shall be requested by the Curator to remove the same; and if he fail to comply with this request, it shall be the duty of the Curator to have the said work, properly protected, stored in some suitable place, the entire cost of which shall be charged to the owner, and for the payment of which charges the work shall be retained as security, and if the property so stored be not redeemed in a reasonable time by the reimbursement of the entire expenses of removal and storage, then it shall be lawful for the Trustees to sell such works at public sale, after reasonable public notice, for cash, and hold the residue, after the payment of the expenses and storage aforesaid, subject to the order of the owner, or his representative.

4. The Gallery shall be at no expense for Works of Art on exhibition or stored away, or responsible for any damage by fire, or otherwise, ordinary care having been taken of them.

5. These rules shall be subscribed by all persons whose works shall be hereafter admitted, and the same shall thereupon become a contract between them and the Trustees, legally binding on both, and also binding on the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of the depositor or owner of the work put on exhibition.

6. No deviation shall be made herefrom without the consent of the Board of Trustees.

The Corcoran Gallery of Art,

Washington, D. C. May 27/90.

To the Committee on the Building,

Gentlemen

I beg to suggest that for the proper accomplishment of the work which has to be done in the Gallery during the summer, it is necessary a portion of the force should always be present, and I respectfully request that if the usual leaves of absence are granted, they be as follows.

B. O. Tayloe from June 15 to July 15.

Thos J. Cassidy from June 15 to July 15.

Henry B. Padgett from July 15 to Aug 15.

B. V. Daneele, from Aug 1 to Sept 1.

This arrangement is agreeable to all and will secure me the services of Tayloe & Cassidy at a time when their services will be very necessary for the proper execution of the work contemplated.

Very respectfully,

Edw. W. Wash.

Dear ~~Mr~~ Washington,

I find your letter of the 6th inst. on my return after a brief absence from the city. I have no interest in the encaustic portraits beyond an earnest desire to have a specimen of this unique collection in Washington, and leave it entirely to your judgement whether the matter should be laid before your board of trustees.

America. They would for example be a great addition to any gallery of great attraction at the Corcoran gallery. I do hope that some way will be found of getting at least one of these portraits to Washington.
